Managing Director

Introduction:

OMFED (Odisha State Cooperative Milk Producers' Federation Limited) is a State Government Cooperative operating under the administrative control of the Fisheries & Animal Resources Development Department, Government of Odisha. Established with the objective of strengthening the dairy sector in the state, OMFED is responsible for the procurement, processing, and marketing of milk and a wide range of dairy products across Odisha.

OMFED works through a network of Milk Producers' Cooperative Societies (MPCS) to ensure remunerative returns to farmers while supplying safe, hygienic, and quality milk and milk products to consumers. Its product portfolio includes pasteurized liquid milk, curd, peda, paneer, ghee, milk powder, flavoured milk, khoa, Juices, ice cream, and other value-added dairy products.

In order to enhance its operational efficiency and strengthen its market presence, OMFED seeks to engage a qualified consulting firm for setting up a dedicated Sales & Distribution Project Management Unit (PMU). The proposed PMU will support strategic planning, market expansion, sales optimization, supply chain strengthening, performance monitoring, and overall transformation of OMFED's sales and distribution ecosystem.

Scope of Work:

EoI is invited from eligible consulting firms to support OMFED in establishing and operationalizing a Sales & Distribution Project Management Unit (PMU). The PMU will assist OMFED in strengthening sales operations, optimizing distribution networks, improving market coverage, and enhancing overall commercial performance across key markets in Odisha.

The selected consulting firm will provide managerial and technical support to OMFED in areas such as market assessment, sales strategy development, channel expansion, marketing initiatives, capacity building, and field-level implementation support. The assignment will also include periodic performance monitoring, data analytics, and advisory services to improve operational efficiency and market competitiveness.

The PMU is expected to work closely with OMFED's Marketing, Sales, Production, Quality, and Supply Chain teams to ensure alignment of strategies and to support the rollout of initiatives across Odisha and other emerging markets. The consulting firm will also support in designing pilot interventions, documenting learnings, and scaling up successful models.

E. Terms and Conditions:

The Odisha State Cooperative Milk Producers' Federation Ltd (OMFED), a state-owned cooperative organization, invites Expressions of Interest (EOI) for the selection of a consulting firm for setting up a Sales & Distribution Project Management Unit (PMU) at OMFED, strictly in adherence to the eligibility criteria specified in the EOI document. The Managing Director, OMFED, reserves the right to accept or reject any or all EOIs, which they consider appropriate, without assigning any reason to the participants.

1. DECLARATION:

The submission of the EOI by a Participant implies that he/she has read the notice and conditions of the EOI and the terms and conditions of contract and has made himself/herself aware of scope and specifications of the work to be made and the destination where the work have to be done and satisfied himself/herself regarding the quality and requirements.

2. CONFIDENTIALITY:

- i. Definition of Confidential Information: For the purpose of this EOI, "Confidential Information" shall mean all non-public information, materials, data, documents, know-how, and trade secrets, whether technical, financial, operational, commercial, strategic, or otherwise, disclosed by one party (the "Disclosing Party") to the other party (the "Receiving Party") in connection with this Expression of Interest. This includes, but is not limited to: * From OMFED: Any information provided in the EOI document, during pre-bid meetings, clarifications, discussions, or subsequent interactions regarding OMFED's operations, existing sales & distribution network, market strategies, financial data, or project requirements. * From the Bidder: Any information contained in the EOI submission, including but not limited to firm profile, past project details, methodologies, technical approaches, team structures, pricing philosophy (if indicated), and any other proprietary or business-sensitive information. Confidential Information may be disclosed in any form, including oral, written, electronic, visual, or magnetic media.
- ii. Obligations of the Receiving Party: The Receiving Party agrees to: * Maintain strict confidentiality of all Confidential Information received from the Disclosing Party. * Not disclose, reproduce, or transmit such Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party. * Not use the Confidential Information for any purpose other than for evaluating and responding to this EOI, or for fulfilling its obligations in connection with this EOI. * Take all reasonable measures to protect the secrecy of, and avoid disclosure or unauthorized use of, the Confidential Information, which shall be no less stringent than the measures it takes to protect its own confidential information. * Limit access to Confidential Information to only those of its employees, agents, and consultants who have a strict "need-to-know" for the purpose of participating in this EOI process and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as restrictive as those contained herein. The Receiving Party shall be responsible for any breach of this clause by its employees, agents, or consultants.

- iii. Exclusions from Confidential Information: The obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any information that: * Is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act or omission of the Receiving Party. * Was already known to the Receiving Party prior to its disclosure by the Disclosing Party, as evidenced by written records. * Is independently developed by the Receiving Party without reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information. * Is rightfully received by the Receiving Party from a third party without restriction on disclosure and without breach of this or any other confidentiality agreement. * Is required to be disclosed by law, court order, or by any governmental or regulatory authority, provided that, where legally permissible, the Receiving Party shall provide prompt written notice to the Disclosing Party to allow the Disclosing Party an opportunity to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy.
 - iv. No License or Ownership: This EoI and the disclosure of Confidential Information hereunder shall not be construed as granting any right, title, interest, or license to the Receiving Party in or to the Confidential Information, or any intellectual property rights embodied therein. All ownership of the Confidential Information shall remain with the Disclosing Party.
 - v. Return or Destruction of Information: Upon the written request of the Disclosing Party, or upon the completion or termination of the EoI process, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all copies (electronic or physical) of the Confidential Information received from the Disclosing Party, including all notes, summaries, or analyses prepared by the Receiving Party containing or reflecting any Confidential Information. The Receiving Party may be required to provide a written certification of such destruction.
 - vi. Survival: The confidentiality obligations set forth in this clause shall survive the submission or rejection of the EoI by a Bidder for a period of three (3) years from the date of disclosure.
 - vii. Acceptance of Terms: By submitting for this EoI, the Bidder acknowledges and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Confidentiality Clause. OMFED also agrees to be bound by these terms regarding the Confidential Information submitted by the Bidders.
- 3. Conflict of Interest:
- i. Declaration of Conflict of Interest: Bidders must ensure that there is no actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest that could arise from their participation in this EoI process or, if selected, in performing the services for OMFED. A conflict of interest may arise in situations where:
 - The Bidder, its affiliates, or any of its personnel have a business or personal relationship with OMFED's staff involved in the procurement process, project evaluation, or decision-making.
 - The Bidder has provided or is currently providing services to a competitor or entity that could benefit from the Bidder's knowledge of OMFED's sales and distribution strategies.
 - The Bidder has an interest, financial or otherwise, that could be seen to compromise the objectivity, independence, or impartiality required for the services.

- The Bidder, its affiliates, or personnel have received or been given any undue advantage, favor, or consideration that might influence the EoI process.
- ii. Obligation to Disclose: Any Bidder who perceives or identifies a potential or actual conflict of interest, or whose circumstances could give rise to a conflict of interest as described above, must immediately declare it in writing to OMFED, providing full details of the conflict. This declaration must be submitted along with the EoI proposal or as soon as the conflict becomes apparent.
- iii. OMFED's Right to Act: OMFED reserves the right to:
 - Reject an EoI submission if a conflict of interest is identified or declared, and OMFED, in its sole discretion, determines that the conflict cannot be adequately mitigated.
 - Seek clarification or additional information from the Bidder regarding any declared or perceived conflict of interest.
 - Require the Bidder to take specific measures to mitigate the conflict, if feasible and acceptable to OMFED.
 - Disqualify a Bidder at any stage of the EoI process, or even terminate a subsequent contract, if a conflict of interest is discovered or found to have been concealed.
- iv. No Advantage: Bidders must not use information obtained during the EoI process (or prior engagements with OMFED) for any purpose other than preparing their EoI submission. Any attempt to gain an unfair advantage or to influence the EoI process through improper means will result in immediate disqualification.

4. Dispute Resolution Mechanism (for EoI Process):

Any dispute, difference, or controversy arising out of or in connection with this EoI process shall be resolved through the following approach:

- i. Amicable Discussion: The parties (OMFED and the aggrieved Bidder) shall first endeavour to resolve the dispute amicably through mutual discussions and good faith negotiations.
- ii. Escalation (if applicable): If the dispute cannot be resolved through initial discussions within fifteen (15) days, it may be escalated to a higher management level of both OMFED and the Bidder for further discussion.
- iii. No Arbitration/Litigation at EoI Stage: For the EoI process itself, formal arbitration or litigation is typically not envisioned. OMFED's decision regarding the EoI process, including shortlisting or rejection of proposals, shall generally be final and binding.
- iv. Jurisdiction: For any formal legal action related to this EoI, the courts in Bhubaneswar, Odisha, India shall have exclusive jurisdiction.
- v. Future Contract: A detailed dispute resolution mechanism, potentially including arbitration, will be incorporated into the final contract signed with the selected consulting firm following the subsequent Request for Proposal (RFP) stage.

5. EOI SUBMISSION:

- i. The EoI is to be submitted offline to OMFED Corporate Office. The address for submitting EOI bid is mentioned in section A.3. EOIs received by e-mail will not be considered.
- ii. Individuals signing on the EOI and other related documents must specify in which capacity of the firm he/ she has signed the documents.
- iii. The Participants(s) should clearly state in their proposal the address, telephone, fax, e-mail, PAN and GST.
- iv. Negligence on the part of renderer in filling the EOI form offers him/her no right to withdraw the EOI after it has been opened/Submitted
- v. The acceptance of the EOI will be the sole right of the Managing Director, OMFED who does not bind himself to accept a EOI in whole or in part or reject any or all the EOIs received without assigning any reasons and no explanation can be demanded of the cause of rejection of the EOI by any Participants.
- vi. No person or firm is permitted to submit more than one EoI under different names.
